30-Second Mysteries WHY

The Case

The victim of a mugging picks Frank "The Hammer" Reaser out of a police lineup. Frank is well-known by the police and is reputed to know a great deal about this mugging and a host of other criminal activities, such as prostitution, drugs and illegal gambling. However, Frank has strong connections to a powerful organization, and he is released without charges being filed.

The Mystery

Why is Frank allowed to go free and what organization does he work for?

Clues

The victim had seen Frank at the scene of the crime.

Frank has cooperated with police officers before.

Frank has been in police stations many times before, but Frank has never been charged with a crime.

Police officers asked Frank to be in the line-up.

Pointing at Frank decreased the victim's credibility.

Frank's organization fights crime.

April's answer to the 30-second mystery is - The man is William Shakespeare; his most famous victims are Romeo and Juliet.

Congratulations to our April Winner, Diane Caron
