30 Second Mysteries

WHO

Case 4

The Case

Despite international recognition, a well-known King never wore a crown or a robe and was not considered royalty in his native land. He was both loved and hated and could not be deterred from trying to rise up against the injustices in his land.

The Mystery

Who is the man and what year did he die?

Clues

He does not have a Roman numeral after his name.

He shares his name with his father.

The nation mourned his death.

He is a doctor, but he never went to medical school.

He dies in April in Tennessee.

He was shot.

February answer to the 30 Second Mystery is - The man died of electrocution because the death penalty was legalized in California.
