A Flower for Moms

Because of its beauty, hardiness and prevalence, the carnation is regarded as the official flower of Mother's Day. The holiday's founder, Anna Jarvis, chose the frilly, fragrant bloom because it was her mother's favorite flower, and 500 white carnations were handed out at the first Mother's Day observance in 1908.

Forever in Their Debt

"Our debt to the heroic men and valiant women in the service of our country can never be repaid. They have earned our undying gratitude. America will never forget their sacrifices." —Harry S. Truman

ENTERTAINMENT TRIVIA

School's Out for Summer

Even fictional characters have to do their homework and get ready for finals! Some of their schools are more dangerous than others (singing in the hallway!), but they do provide a compelling setting for teen shows. Can you match these schools to the television show they appear on?
