30-Second Mysteries

Who

Case #6

The Case

A man spends much of his day indoors, peering through Windows. The man is not considered a recluse - rather, he has built an impressive organization, attracted a huge number of followers, and amassed great wealth. Although his organization has been under investigation by the U.S. government, many of his followers believe the man has changed their lives.

The Mystery

Who is the man and what is the name of his organization?

Clues

The man is considered a revolutionary and has followers all over the world.

The organization's materials can be found in homes throughout the U.S.

The man was born in the 1950s.

The organization is in the "hi-tech" sector.

The man is one of the wealthiest people in American.

The organization got a helping hand from IBM.

July's answer to the 30-second mysteries is - Iraq and Kuwait were hit hardest by Operation Desert Storm in 1991.
